Sharing Practices to Build Bridges

A Webinar Series for Service Providers and Refugee Sponsors

As part of the Refugee Settlement Support Project, OCASI is hosting a webinar series for service providers and refugee sponsorship groups to bridge some of the information gaps they identified through previous focus group and roundtable discussions. The webinars are designed to clarify roles and responsibilities, increase transparency about practices and support the collaboration between service providers and refugee sponsors. Please register for the specific webinar you wish to attend by clicking on the registration link provided below. Click here for a list of previous webinar recordings and presentation slides.

Collaborating For The Benefit Of Refugees: Sharing Promising Practices II

Mon., March 19, 2018, 2 pm – 3:00 pm EST

Speakers: Don Smith, Anglican Diocese of Ottawa & Louisa Taylor, Refugee613

Continuing the conversation on sharing promising practices on building partnerships and collaborating across sectors to better support privately sponsored refugees, we will be joined by members of Refugee613 for this webinar. Refugee613 is a coalition of citizens, settlement agencies, sponsorship groups and community partners in Ottawa that came together to inform, connect and inspire each other as various stakeholders. The majority of Ottawa's service providers and refugee sponsorship groups are members of this group. Join this webinar to learn more about how this coalition came to be, how it works across sectors and what its achievements and lessons-learned have been to date.
